

candidates in order of their merit from the list of finally selected candidates. The Commission shall for each service also indicate the category of the candidate under which he/she has been selected.

- (iii) Candidates will be recommended to the various services keeping in view their ranks in the examination and the preferences expressed by them in respect of services in their Detailed Application Form for the Main (Written) Examination. The appointment to various services will also be governed by the rules/regulations in force as applicable to the respective services at the time of appointment.
- (iv) The candidate shall be considered for allocation to only one of those services for which he has indicated his preference in the prescribed manner subject to fulfilment of other conditions. The candidate shall not be allocated service for which he/she has not given choice.
- (v) If two or more candidates have obtained equal marks in the aggregate, then the candidate obtaining higher marks in the Main (Written) Examination shall be given preference. In case of tie, the candidate higher in age shall be given preference.
- (vi) Success in the examination confers no right to appointment unless Government is satisfied after such enquiry as may be considered necessary that the candidate, having regard to his character and antecedents and certificates produced by him during the course of examination for the purpose of eligibility as well as claiming any kind of benefit for reservation is suitable in all respects for appointment to the Service. The decision of the Government in this regard shall be final.

16. Candidature :-

The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise for admission to the Examination shall be final. The candidates applying for the examination should ensure that they fulfill all the eligibility conditions for admission to the examination. Their admission at all the stages of examination for which they are admitted by the Commission viz. Preliminary Examination, Main (Written) Examination and Interview Test will be purely provisional, subject to their satisfying the prescribed eligibility condition. If on verification at any point of time before or after the Preliminary Examination, Main (Written) Examination or Interview Test, if one is found to fail in fulfilling any of the eligibility conditions, his/her candidature for the examination shall be cancelled by the Commission.
